Daily Market Report

WALL STREET

New York, Oct. 2.—The advance met with considerable opposition and realizing sales, the short interest again concentrating its efforts upon United States Steel and other prominent industrials which not only surrendered all their early gains, but soon fell 1 to 2 points under last week's final prices. The tendency in that quarter was once more offset, however, by further gains in rails, Norfolk and Northwestern extending its advance to 140 and other stocks of that group showing fresh strength. On the setback in industrials, equipments became more stronger especially American and Baldwin Locomotives and Crucible Steel. Trading during the first hour was in large volume, but dwindled perceptibly before noon. Bonds were irregular.

Chicago Hog Market.

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Liberal receipts here and throughout the west had a depressing influence today on hog prices. Choice cattle were in demand but other kinds neglected. The supply of sheep and lambs were overplentiful for immediate requirements.

Summary of the Local Market.

Oct. 2.—Tintic Standard was the feature of the trading this morning on the local mining exchange. This issue closed Saturday at 61 cents, opened this morning at 67 cents, and advanced rapidly and changed hands as high as 90 cents, 6800 shares changing hands. This can be accounted for by the good reports that are coming from the mine. Copper was also in demand it selling as high as $3.20 this morning. Iron Blossom sold off to $1.52 1/2, and Midwest Sulphur was steady at 40 cents. Generally speaking the whole market was a little stronger with prices looking better.

Chicago Grain

Chicago, Oct. 2.—Increasing drought damage in Argentina gave a basis today for a fresh advance in wheat prices here. Dispatches from Rosario in the center of the dry district said the effect of the long continued lack of rain were serious and that all crops were suffering. Scarcity of receipts at the domestic spring wheat terminals and at Winnipeg tended also to handicap the bulls. Opening quotations, which ranged from 14 to 34c higher with December at $1.54 1/4 to $1.54 3/8 and May at $1.54 to $1.54 3/8, were followed by moderate further gains.

Higher prices for corn ruled from the bulge in wheat. Fine weather failed to act as an offset. After opening 1-c off to a shade up, the market scored advances all around. Oats hardened in value with other cereals. Demand, though, was only of a scattered character. Weakness in the hog market pulled down provisions. Most of the trade was in January options.

Gossip that foreigners were buyers both of cash wheat and future deliveries helped later to bring about an additional upturn. The close was strong at an advance of 2 1/8c net with December at $1.56 1/8 and May at $1.55 3/4.

Talk of disappointing acre yields and large exports led subsequently to other gains in corn prices. The close was firm at 5-8@3-4 to 1-18c above Saturday's finish.

Greatest Horse Sale in West is Opened at Pens Across Viaduct

One of the biggest auction sales of horses and mules ever conducted in the intermountain country is now in progress in the large sale pens of the Ogden Sales company, across the viaduct.

Beginning today, the sale will continue until Thursday night, when, it is expected, Clyde M. Moore, an auctioneer long experienced in the sale of horses and mules, will have let the hammer fall more than 3,000 times in the sale of an equal number of horses and mules to agents of the French government and other buyers. The animals are being purchased for use in the European war.

The sale is one of a series of six to be conducted during the winter months, and in which increasing numbers of horses and mules will be disposed of. Some of the horses will be purchased for local use, while others, it is stated, will become the property of the United States government.

The next sale will be conducted on October 23, 24, 25 and 26. Another will be held in November 13, 14 and 15. The January sale will be held for three days, beginning on the 6th and continuing until the 10 inclusive. The fifth sale will be on February 19, 20 and 21, while the final one of the series will be March 12, 13, 14 and 15.

Howard A. Butler, who is actively engaged with the management of the horse sales, stated that the company now had a crew of fifty-five buyers in the field and that results obtained by them in the past are being taken as assurance that the Ogden horse market will show, during the winter months, an increasing number of sales.

A. A. Butler for several weeks has been directing a crew of about twenty workers in the inspection and branding of horses for one commission of the French government. This commission is composed of Captain Vinney and Capt. Phillippe.

Joseph Mitchener of the Ogden Sales company is also in charge of a crew of twenty men engaged in this work. The French commission with which he is working is composed of Captain DeJude and Dr. Parent.

The tremendous volume of business being transacted by the sales company is recorded in figures which show that about 23,000 horses and mules have been handled through the Ogden horse market since the sales company began business last May. At an average sale price of $135 per head, this totals $3,145,000.

It was stated that more than 7,500 horses and mules would be disposed of in the two sales this month.

These facts and figures were presented by Mr. Rutter in substantiation of the statement that the Ogden horse market is the biggest in the intermountain country and one of the biggest in the United States. The growth of the business to its present tremendous proportions is attributed to Ogden's geographical location which has made it advantageous for shipping purposes.

Mr. Rutter asserted that the sales company figured the Ogden horse market to have greater advantages for expansion than any of those in Chicago, St. Louis, Miles City, Montana, or Kansas City. The horses purchased by the buyers are not shipped in by the carload. They come in train loads. A special train of thirty-four cars of horses and mules reached the pens Saturday night. Special trains are also used in shipping the animals from this point to support cities.

The sales company is composed of Otto Meek and Ed. Love and William Weathers as manager. This company formerly conducted all its horse sale transaction at Miles City, Montana. Last May they came to Ogden. The company co-operates with H. W. Dunn and James Adams, of St. Louis, in handling the business here. The horsemen believe that the horse market is here to stay and predict an even greater expansion, to include territory heretofore not penetrated by the purchasing crews.

ROBBER CUTS THROUGH A DOOR INTO A GROCERY

The Wilson Brothers' grocery store, at Twenty-eighth street and Wall avenue, was entered by robbers, sometime between the closing hour Saturday night and the opening hour Sunday morning. Shortly after entering the store this morning, a member of the firm became aware that a robbery had been perpetrated, as he found several dollars in change that had been left in the cash register Saturday night, missing.

The police department was notified and an investigation by Detective R. H. Wootton revealed the robber's manner of entrance to the building. The fellow had opened a cellar door and then cut a hole in the door at the head of the stair leading into the store room and lifted the night latch.

In addition to the small amount of money, a quantity of groceries and tobacco was taken.

PROTEST AGAINST THE VOTING MACHINE HAS BEEN MADE

Objections to the use of voting machines on the ground that they are old and worn, that their plan of operation is confusing to the voter, that they can be tampered with and that it was the general understanding after the last county election that the machines would be discarded for a return to the Australian ballot, constitute the subject matter of a petition received by the county commission at the session this morning.

The petition was presented by O. A. Kennedy for the Socialist party in Ogden and Weber county and bears the signature of C. A. Bushnell. It was adopted by Ogden local at the meeting Thursday night of last week. The petition follows:

The commissioners were of the opinion that the law would not permit them discarding the machines and the matter was looked into from the legal viewpoint. Sections of the measure governing the use and legality of voting machines was then read.

The first section states that the governor, secretary of state and attorney general shall constitute a commission to inspect voting machines before they are put in use. The second section of the measure requires the commission to file a report of the results of the examination with either the county clerk or city recorder within five days after the examination.

The third section states specifically that no voting machine shall be used without having been inspected at least ninety days before election day.

Harry Hales, county clerk, appeared before the board with the explanation that it was generally conceded in times past that the provision regarding the time limit on the inspection referred only to the first inspection of the machines and that, further, the provision did not apply in the present pre-election situation.

The question was taken up again by the commission at 2 o'clock this afternoon when representatives of the Democrat parties were given a hearing.

The Democrats are opposed to the use of voting machines on practically the same contention that the Socialist presented.

D. D. McKay said this morning that an investigation had developed that the machines were unfair because they did not permit the expression of the will of the people, and promoted the voting of a straight ticket.

PASSENGER AGENTS ON A VISIT TO OGDEN FOR THE DAY

Ogden is being given a visit this afternoon by a party of Southern Pacific passenger and freight agents, on a special trip of education over the Southern Pacific and contributing lines. They arrived at the local terminal on S. P. train No. 20 and while here they are in the hands of Commercial Agent Willard G. Wilson and District Freight and Passenger Agent F. E. Scott, the latter coming to Ogden from his Salt Lake headquarters for the purpose of greeting the visitors.

The party came from Texas and consists of the following representatives of the Southern Pacific's Sunset Central lines:

G. W. Lewis, New Orleans, in charge; J. F. Darnell, Beaumont; B. H. Anderson, Dallas; and R. H. Brooks, San Antonio, Texas. They are all assistant general passenger agents.

Following their arrival in the city, they were dined at the Weber club by Messrs. Wilson and Scott. The latter, who recently succeeded C. L. McPaul as head of the S. P. traffic department in this district, in speaking of the object of the visit of his fellow agents to Ogden said:

"The Southern Pacific company's first aim and object is to serve its patrons pleasantly and well and it is the reason the educational trips for its traffic agents have been inaugurated. My own visit to Ogden today as well as that of the southern agents, was to become better acquainted with the commercial and civic attractions of the city. I have no doubt that the visit of our southern friends will result in some of the citizens of Texas paying Ogden a visit next year."

Mr. Scott's headquarters are in Salt Lake City and he expects to visit Ogden regularly in the future.

COLLISION OF A CAR WITH AN AUTO IS CAUSE OF SUIT

Suit for $1,000 alleged damages to his automobile, resulting from a collision with a street car on Jefferson avenue on October 5, 1915, was started by Richard Leek against the Ogden, Logan & Idaho Railway company in the district court this morning. The complaint charges negligence on the part of the company's agents in allowing the street car to run at an excessive rate of speed, more than 20 miles an hour, at the time the collision occurred. It is stated that the machine originally was worth $1,750.
